Spend Your Holiday on a Western Ranch

Out in the ranch country of the west, around Sheridan, Wyoming, or in the Big Horn Basin of Wyoming. where Buffalo Bid founded the town of Cody, the practice has grown for the good ranch people there to pro-vide for summer boarders and I don't know any more interesting and pleasurable way of spending one's vacation with the wife and children, than to go out on one of those ranches, and ride and fish for trout ranches, and ride and fish for trout (great fishing out there), and eat good, plain, substantial food, and sleep-my! how one does sleep after days spent exercising in that wonderful mountain air. This "Ranch Vacation" is a novel idea, but very easy to accomplish, for I can tell you all about what you can do and how to do it and what it will cost and what you can get and all about it. Just write and let me suggest a plan for you to follow.

Mrs. Anna H. Davis, in Suing for Divorce, Also Charges Cruelty and Infidelity.

Among the allegations made by Mrs Anna H. Davis in her suit for absolute divorce, filed in the District Supreme Court against Brit W. Davis, secretary to member of Congress, is that he disin their apartment house awake at night by making imaginary political and campaign speeches. Charges of cruelty and infidelity are also made by the wife.

Mrs. Davis tells the court that her husinfidelity are also made by the wife.

Mrs. Davis tells the court that her husband has frequently announced his intention to run for Congress from Georgia, and upon many occasions during the past year he would come home under the influence of liquor and "insist on making political and campaign speeches in their apartment for hours at a time, walking up and down the floor gesticulating and talking in a loud voice." The wife also declares that her husband threatened to kill her and the baby if she should have Tells of Husband's Actions.

The couple were married October 8, 1912, and have one child. Within three months after the wedding, the wife asserts, her husband began to curse and abuse her and to drink heavily. June 1 last, the wife tells the court, her integrated her, and when she refused to "fuss" back at him he called up the "scoreboard" of the local papers and abused the operators. This alleged action, the wife states, mortified and humiliated her and destroyed the rest and quiet of the neighbors.

During their married life, the wife declares, her husband be granted to contact the states, as well as the flower beds in the gardens.
